THANK YOU!

To everyone who gave to the Missions Fund in 2015, Coro Church would like to say: your generosity helped make all this happen!

- Leadership of a large team of mission workers and their families in Cambodia and the establishment of a Khmer-English language school
- Unmarried Adelaide mothers assisted and high schoolers trained in healthy relationships.
- Aircraft maintenance and staff training in Mongolia
- Discipleship training and creative film ministry in Perth, WA
- Language learning and orientation in Nepal
- Promotion of Scripture Union in Adelaide
- Students helping students in the Kalahari Desert, South Africa
- Students in South Australia presented with the story of Jesus at camps and in schools
- Orphans and other children affected by HIV/AIDS in northern Thailand continuing their school and post-school education
- Refugees and asylum seekers in Adelaide learning English and learning about Jesus
- Improving primary health care for communities, as well as the safety of women, by providing water and sanitation to rural homes in Egypt

Everyone who gave to the Fifth Sunday offerings also contributed to:

- Quality medical and spiritual help at Mercy Medical Center, Phnom Penh
- Assistance to people in Nepal after the earthquakes
- Counselling and practical help for people in our local area

*God will make you rich in every way so that you can always give freely.
And your giving through us will cause many to give thanks to God. 2 Cor 9:11*
