

ANTIQUES GETAWAY

MAY 8TH-10TH 2018

After two great years of Antiques Getaway, we believe this one is heading for something one of our attendees mentioned last year "I came away feeling that I was empowered in my ongoing ministry – despite my age."

Wonderful – that is exactly the sentiment we hope you will all feel at this year's getaway. There is an awful tendency as we get older, sadly reinforced all too often by the actuality of careless comments, to end up feeling it is time to "just sit in the corner and behave."

Our guest speaker this year, Frank Seeley, is showing the world that age is no barrier and you can compete and excel not just on the South Australian stage, but internationally. For all the success and distinctions Frank has gained, he remains a humble, delightful man, a dedicated, faith filled Christian and an impressive speaker.

This year will also introduce some old friends again. The grant which has come our way from Resthaven, administered by Synod, has not only enabled us to keep rate costs down, but to reduce them slightly from last year. It has also allowed enough to give those who would love to come along, but might find it a little hard to afford, a bit of a leg up. In addition, the encouragement of other one-time Coro folk to attend is welcomed due to the evangelical nature of this grant. We have therefore, issued a few invitations to those who are still very much in touch even though they may not be worshipping with us.

Antiques Getaway 2018 promises to be a time of great fellowship, inspired teaching from Rod James, a motivational speaker and all that wonderful worship.

Registrations are now open until March 31st. Present Coro members will of course get preferential booking should we be flooded with 'outsiders' but we would recommend that you send in your registrations as soon as possible. We look forward to seeing you.
